

Getting to know each other

Stephanie: Hello, what's your name?

Cecilia: Hello, I'm Cecilia. What's your name?

Stephanie: I'm Stephanie. Nice to meet you Cecilia. This is Eleonor. She is a friend from Holland. She is studying here for a year.

Cecilia: Nice to meet you Eleonor. How do you like it here?

Eleonor: I really like the campus. I know only other foreign students at the moment. This is Tim and this is Nathalie. He is studying French and she is studying visual arts.

Cecilia: Hi Tim, hi Nathalie, where do you come from?

Nathalie: Hello everybody. I'm Dutch. I come from Rotterdam.

Tim: Hello everyone. Nice to meet you all. I come from Scotland, but my parents are German.

Holland is also known as the Netherlands and the adjective is Dutch.

The adjective to describe someone or something that comes from Germany is German.